

Summertime in Park City

Summer is here in Park City, Utah! It's that special time of the year, where the slopes we skied down in the winter become the best terrain for one of my personal favorite pastimes — mountain biking!

We, at Resorts West, love where we live. The mountains bring peace, beauty, and endless hours of enjoyment to each of us. After a busy day of work, you can find team members hitting trails out of Silver Star, paddle boarding on the Jordanelle, or hiking to the top of Guardsman Pass in Deer Valley to watch the sunset.

Another great element of summer is the opportunity we have to plan and prepare for the next ski season. We value all of our owners and appreciate the important role you play in our continued success. We hope you are able to spend some time in Park City this summer enjoying all it has to offer.

Sincerely,

James Ballstaedt, President/COO

Project Big Air

Utah Olympic Park has exciting changes and upgrades coming this summer. Project Big Air includes seven, new sport-specific ramps for aërials, moguls, freeskiing, snowboarding and big air. This facility will be placing Park City at the forefront of skiing and snowboarding development.

A Grand Opening celebration will be on June 27th with a new Flying Ace All-Stars show. Donors of gifts $1000 and above are invited to a private reception with the athletes. Feel free to contact Jennifer Lippman at 435-658-4200 if you are interested.

Resorts West Real Estate

Silver Star continues to grow as a favorite spot at Park City Resort. With the café, rental shop, and outdoor plaza area, Silver Star has a perfect village-like atmosphere. Resorts West is proud to represent three Silver Star listings. View these MLS listings here. For more information contact Stacy Bauman at sbauman@resortswest.com or 435-901-4849.
